

THE C. and O. has decided to replace Collectors on the Lexington Division and on the shuttle trains running between Ironton and Huntington, and the Collectors who were recently released will likely be reinstated within the next few days.

FRANK PHILLIPS, who figured so prominently in the Hatfield-McCoy feud, and William Bevins, a detective, were both shot and killed at the head of the Sandy river by the Pickett boys, who recently killed old man Ferrell in Logan county, W. Va. Phillips and Bevins were in pursuit of the Pickett boys.

This Postoffice Department has issued instructions to the effect that if a corner or any part of a postage stamp is mutilated or missing, the letter bearing such a stamp will be held for postage. This is "splitting hairs" very fine. The Department ought to furnish better paper if it expects to separate the stamps without tearing them.

BLOOD ON THE MOON.

Renewed Talk of a Duel Between Stoll and Wilson.

A special from New York says that the sensational Pollard-Breckinridge breach of promise case may yet lead to a more sensational episode is indicated by a letter which Attorney Charles H. Stoll, now in that city, has addressed to Judge "Jere" Wilson.

In the days of Southern chivalry it would have been construed as a challenge to mortal combat, and there is a possibility that even in those advanced days it may have a startling denouement.

"There is another Court beyond this one in which you shall answer to me for this," had been Mr. Stoll's words to Judge Wilson, and their significance was increased by reference to the offended lawyer coming from a part of the United States where resort to the code duello is not obsolete.

Judge Wilson made a formal retraction before the jury at the beginning of the next session, which was couched in language that does not quite satisfy the fiery Kentuckian or his friends. However, Mr. Stoll forbore acting further until the verdict in his client's case should be rendered by the jury.

Under such advice of Mr. Butterworth and Colonel Breckinridge, another opportunity was afforded Judge Wilson after the trial, in which to make a more complete retraction and apology. This not being forthcoming, Mr. Stoll addressed a letter to his antagonist, to which no reply or denial of any of the facts contained therein has been received so far. In his letter Mr. Stoll virtually asks Mr. Wilson out, and there is danger of a duel.

THE MAGIC CITY.

GREAT SUCCESS OF "THE LEDGER'S" GIFT TO PATRONS.

Instructions How to Get a Set of the Illustrated World's Fair Views Published.

THE LEDGER on Saturday began distributing to its patrons the finest series of the World's Fair Views that have yet been issued. This is the testimony of all who have seen them.

Now, we will try to make plain the way to get them:

First—Cut out of THE LEDGER this coupon:

Public Ledger.

Magic City Art Portfolio Coupon.

Mail or bring to the office of THE LEDGER, 100 West Second Street, five different coupons, and Ten Cents in Cash, and you will receive a set of the World's Fair Views. (Kor—Six Coupons of different places, and Ten Cents are required.)

April 20, 1894.

Second—When you have cut out SIX coupons of different dates, if you live in the city and your paper is delivered by carrier, bring them to this office WITH TEN CENTS, and one book of the Views will be given to you. If you live at another place, send the six coupons and ten cents by mail to this office and the book will be sent to you by mail from Philadelphia.

Third—If you have mislaid any of your coupons, you can get the books at 15 cents each, and you can get the books numbered at any time. After the set is finished appropriate binding can be had at a small cost.

The set comprises sixteen books, and when completed it will form a most magnificent collection. There's no other way in which you can secure such an art treasure for so little money.

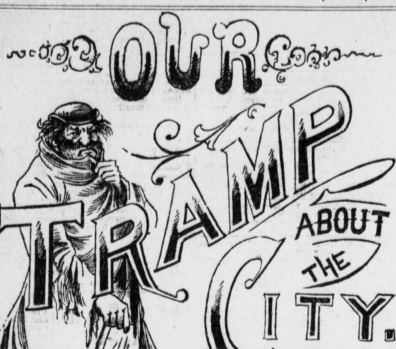

PLEASE REMEMBER.

When we say SIX coupons, we don't mean five.

When we say coupon, we mean the entire coupon with the border around it, and not a piece of it.

The date at the bottom of the coupon is changed every day, and you must send us set of different dates.

Under no circumstances will any exceptions be made to the above requirements.

MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect For the Next Twenty-four Hours.

The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 5 o'clock to-morrow evening.

SONG OF COXEY'S BRIGADE.

We're marchin' on to Washington,
Our ragged coats we just
Were bowlin' through the country,
But—
We Don't Want Work!
We're wadin' through the farmyards
Where the fattest chickens lurk;
We're feastin' on the country,
But—
We Don't Want Work!

DORIS twenty-four years of service Mayor Corbin of Ironton has disposed of 18,830 cases, sat in judgment on 14,000 prisoners and collected in fines $25,514 80.

The Grand Jury in the Franklin Circuit Court brought in one hundred and five indictments, among them forty for giving away liquor on election day unlawfully, one for manslaughter, one for arson, one for felony, and the remainder for petit larceny. Frankfort needs a life meeting.

These women of Lexington have been holding their peace lately, but now in a very short time it is possible that they may be heard from. The fact that Breckinridge's friends are preparing to give him an ovation at the Opera-house there on the 5th of May is causing them to examine their husbands and see who it is that is going to throw his Sunday hat in the air and yell for Breckinridge. The husband of one of these ladies said: "The women are holding their breath with astonishment, and if such an ovation takes place they will hold a mass meeting and denounce the whole proceedings."

IT'S SO IF IT'S IN THE LEDGER.

Charles E. Smith is the proud pa of a new son.

Add Pollitt of the Sixth Ward sent in a lot of ancient papers—one a bond of William Parker, who was at one time in the misty past Postmaster at Aberdeen. Also a copy of Henry Clay's great speech on the Tariff, delivered in the Senate January 11th, 1832.

Mason, Hoge & Co. of Frankfort, who have some big contracts for building part of the mammoth canal at Chicago, have just increased their contract with two miles more of the big work from delinquent contractors. This makes the total amount of their contract something like $6,000,000.

The authority of Secretary Carlisle to dismiss employees of the Treasury Department who held office under the civil service laws is to be tested in the courts. Application has been made to the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia for a mandamus compelling the Secretary to reinstate Eugene E. Gaddis, a Republican clerk, whose removal was contested by the Civil Service Commission.

Revival Services.

The services at the Central Presbyterian Church still continue and the interest is growing more and more with each service. Rev. John G. Anderson is a powerful preacher, and all those who have heard him once generally go back again. There were two additions to the church last night and three asked for prayer. The Women's Union Prayer meeting this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock will be held in this church, and it is expected that every Christian lady in Mayville will be present and render a prayer for the success of our city.

Tonight at 7:15 Rev. Anderson will preach, and it is to be hoped that the church will be filled to hear him. His subject will be, "Conversation With Nicodemus." The members of the church are especially urged to be present, as there will be an important business meeting.

Everybody invited and made welcome. If you want to make a substantial gift to some relative or friend who has moved away from this section, send them The Mayville Republican. Price $1 50 per year.

"MATTHEW SILENT."

The Quiet Pennsylvania Senator Proposes a Short Talk.

It has just begun to dawn upon the Senate that Mr. Quay, whose tactfulness is so traditional as to have earned for himself the sobriquet of the "Silent Man from Pennsylvania," is prepared to discuss the Tariff to an almost illimitable extent. The fact has leaked out that Mr. Quay has collected a mass of statistics, historical information and facts as to the present condition of American industry, not only in Pennsylvania, but in every manufacturing state in the Union, which will require many days to lay before the Senate.

If he carries out his program of speaking at length upon the bill Mr. Quay will become as conspicuous a figure in the Senate debates as were any of the advocates of silver during the prolonged intra session last summer. Mr. Quay exceeds in his zeal even those New England Senators who believe, in the words of Mr. Chandler of New Hampshire, in "fighting the iniquitous Tariff bill" to the utmost limit of time and to the exhaustion of every honorable means of opposition.

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note to that effect.

E. A. Robinson the cigarist came in yesterday from West Virginia.

Miss Mollie Boyd of Minerva is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. O. Pickrel.

Miss Mary Oldham was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Carroll at Manchester.

T. C. Campbell, the well known attorney, was registered at the Palace, Cincinnati, yesterday.

Miss Corinne Blackburn, daughter of the Kentucky Senator, has sailed from New York for Europe, to visit friends.

Mrs. J. A. Perry, wife of Editor Perry of Manchester, accompanied by her daughters, was a recent guest of friends here.

Mrs. Joe Hendricks, Mrs. C. D. Armstrong and Mrs. L. Price, all of Flemingsburg, were registered at the Palace, Cincinnati, yesterday.

We have quite a number of Magic City No. 5. Holders of Easter coupons did not present them. You ought to have this number to complete your set.

THE HORSE MARKET.

Fine Stallion and Other Stock Sold By Moss Daulton & Bro.

Moss Daulton & Bro. have sold to L. C. Tewes of Chicago their fine trotting bred coach stallion Cyclone, by Cyclone 1,950, race record 2:34, sire of the unbeaten Dr. Sparks, 2:12; Gillette, 2:14; Amoreau, 2:15, and a host of others in the 2:30 list and better; dam by Mambrunello, 2:21, sire of Tommy Britton, 2:36, Sadie Hill, 2:36, and of Cleveland, 2:28; Cyclone is a beautiful rich bay in color, with black points and heavy mane and tail. He is powerfully built, of even conformation. He has had no training but can show a 2:50 gait, and with a season's handling will take a mark below 2:30. In disposition he is kind, gentle and good tempered. Any one can handle him. His oldest colts are three years old and a fine lot of individuals. None of them have been trained, but show considerable speed and action in the pasture. His weanlings are equally as good a lot. Several of them are real show colts, and will compare favorably with the get of any horse in Kentucky. The price paid was private, but is known to be over a thousand, as Mr. Daulton had previously refused a very liberal offer for him.

The Daultons also sold to Ed Kindig of Philadelphia one sorrel mare 5 years old by Meredith, son of Hambletonian 10, dam by Kentucky Prince, Jr., 3:19, sire of J. U., 2:17, Lemonade, 2:27, and of the same party one bay mare 5 years old by Enterprise, son of Red Wilkes, dam Estraced.
